NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!!
AT Creech's.

I MAKE MY BOW AGAIN TO MY NUMEROUS friends and patrons, with a house full of goods and still they come.
Why, just look, the streets filled with drays all loaded with new Goods.

FOR CREECH'S.

Just received, 50 CASES OF DRY GOODS, containing a large and varied assortment; and when you talk about Dress Goods, and when you think of new styles and speak of Goods at the right prices, why, bear in mind that they are here and now opened at Creech's. COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

CALICOES, CALICOES.

I will sell you Calicoes at 8 cts a per yard; want you look at them at 10 cents? and can't you afford to buy them at 12½c.

Goods for Men's and Boy's Wear.

Don't you know that I keep the best assortment in the City? You that do not know it, come and look at them and to you that do know, come right along and buy what you want. I have got some for the boy's, plenty for the youth's. A fine supply for the young men and enough to keep the old gentlemen warm, so why not spend a few moments at Creech's and satisfy yourselves?

There the remote Bermudas ride
In the Ocean's bosom unespied;
From a small boat that rowed along
The listning winds received the song.
COME TO CREECH'S.

Cloaks and Shawls, Cloaks and Shawls.

Did I say Cloaks and Shawls? That is just what I mean. Why I will sell them to you for $2.00! Do you want them cheaper? same quality. Can't find them! Do you want them finer? I am just the man that has them, 5, 7, 10, 12, 15, 20, 25 and 30 dollars; do you want them finer still? Just say so, and I am the man to order them.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

Just received 100 Cases for Ladies, Misses, Boys and Children; so just put that naked foot into a boot or shoe, for it will soon be cold weather, and my friend, I see your boots are wearing out, and your shoes have a hole in them, so you had just as well come to Creech's and buy a new pair. They look better and fit better, any way; they keep your feet dry and preserve your health.

Hats, Hats, Hats.

All right; Prices right; Styles right; and did you know that Creech's is the place to buy hats right? Come and look.

Ladies' and Misses' trimmed and untrimmed Bonnets; Would you not do well to spare a few moments and come and look at them?

I beg leave to return my sincere thanks for the patronage I have received for the last 20 years at your hands, and I hope, by strict attention to business, representing goods as they are and in every instance giving you the worth of your money, to continue to share a liberal portion of your patronage.

ELECTION OF U. S. SENATOR.

Yesterday noon the two Houses of the General Assembly went into the election of United States Senator for North Carolina, to succeed Gen. Abbott. As will be seen by the proceedings of each House, Ex-Gov. Z. B. Vance received a large majority of the joint vote. There were some who objected to the nomination and election of Gov. Vance, on account of the fact that his disabilities have not been removed, believing it impolitic to elect one in that condition. In all other respects the election of Governor Vance will give as general satisfaction to the people throughout the State as would that of any other of our prominent men. We have felt no anxiety on the subject of the Senatorship, so far as the selection of an able, honest and intelligent representative of the State in the United States Senate was concerned, for we knew that from the number of honorable names presented for that exalted position, the Legislature could not well go amiss in making a selection that would be alike creditable and beneficial to the State.

A large number of Gov. Vance's friends and admirers tendered him a complimentary serenade at the Exchange Hotel, last night, to which he responded in his usual felicitous style.

THE CONGRESSIONAL ELECTION.

We have to modify, somewhat, the figures in our report of the election in yesterday's SENTINEL. From telegraphic and letter correspondence, the following is given as the result, as we have it up to the latest reports: The majorities are

For Manning—Johnston 615—Nash 251—Orange, now reported, 710, Chatham, with two or three precincts to hear from, 757—Franklin 36—total, 2,369.

For Holden—Warren 1,196—Granville 260—Wake 497, total, 1,953.

This gives Manning a majority of 416.—The vote from Orange is not full, but the full vote will not lessen the above majority in that county. The districts yet to hear from in Chatham, it is said by intelligent citizens of that county, will increase Manning's majority to 850. If this be correct, Manning's majority will reach a little over 500. Whether this be so or not, Mr. Manning's election is a fixed fact, beyond a peradventure.

THE SCEPTRE DEPARTED FROM JUDAS.

Gov. Holden, in his inaugural address, delivered in Capitol Square in 1868, defined the radical rule in regard to participation in the affairs of the State government by any one not strictly identified with the Radical party—that no Conservative or Democrat was to fill any office, from the lowest to the highest, in the State.—Utter proscription of every man then filling any position of trust or honor in the State, who refused to give in his adherence to the Radical party, was the declared purpose of the Governor, and most rigidly has that rule been observed from that day to this. Exprience, integrity, capability, counted nothing in his favor if he was not of the party and bowed his knee to the image of Baal; the fiat was, "off with his head!"

In this procedure the Governor was but carrying out the spirit of the oath by which he and his brother leaguers were bound to each other. That oath bound its members to vote for no one for office not nominated or approved by the party, and of course this involved the duty of those having the appointment to office, to appoint none but men of their own "faith and order."

The incompetency and dishonesty of the great majority of those who, by this Radical programme, were placed in positions they had neither the will nor ability to discharge the duties of, has been one cause of disgust of radical rule felt by the people and so decidedly manifested in the August elections. The people by their vote in that election not only entered their verdict against the policy of the present State administration, but against the men who inaugurated that policy.

Now that the sceptre has departed from Judas, (pardon the misquotation) what is the duty of those whom the people have chosen to make their laws and regulate and conduct their public affairs? Clearly their duty is to clean out the Augean stable—to oust the incompetent, dishonest incumbents from every place and position where they can be reached, as the people have ousted those they had a chance at in August, and as they will do by the others as soon as they can legally reach them. The Conservatives and Democrats of the State demand this; the radicals themselves expect it; they understand this to be the unmistakable verdict of the August elections. Judge them with their own judgment; mete out to them their own measure.

To pursue any other course would be acting in bad faith to all concerned, if we admit the doctrine that the majority should rule, and that the servants of the people are under obligation to carry out the will of their constituents.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, Nov. 29.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Grayson of the House of Representatives.

Mr. Jones presented a Memorial from His Honor Judge Heath, in reference to a claim against the State for services rendered as Judge, which was read and referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

Leave of absence was granted to Messrs. Jones, Adams and Gilmer to attend Court in their several Districts.

Mr. Brogden gave notice that on to-morrow, he should move to amend the rules of the Senate by expunging the call for previous question therefrom.

Mr. Lehman moved to take from the table the report of the Code Commission for the purpose of referring it to the Judiciary Committee, with instructions to report a bill relating to the matter contained in said report. The motion was lost.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Mr. Worth: Bill requiring Sheriffs and Coroners to give a written notice to parties in whose favor they have processes for collecting money. Referred to the committee on Judiciary.

RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Flythe: Resolution in favor of Henry L. Grant, Sheriff of Northampton. The rules was suspended in order to put the resolution through its several readings. It passed its second reading, when Mr. Cook moved to amend by including the name of the Sheriff of Wilkes, which was concurred in, and, on motion of Mr. Worth, it was amended so as to provide that each Sheriff can show a receipt for the payment of all costs, and the resolution passed.

By Mr. Morehead: Resolution proposing to send a message to the House, informing that body, that the Senate would proceed to ballot for an United States Senator at 12 o'clock, this day, which was concurred in, and the President designated Messrs. Morehead and Moore as the Committee to superintend the election.

By Mr. Moore: Resolution proposing to raise a Committee to inquire into and report what number of counties and their names, that were occupied by troops during the election last August.

This resolution created some discussion. Messrs. Moore and Olds urged its adoption, and Messrs. Murphy, Jones, Dargan and Robbins, spoke against it. During the debate it was termed a fillibustering or Buncombe concern.

On motion of Mr. Graham, it was laid on the table by a vote of 33 to 10.

By Mr. Cook: Resolution in favor of the late Sheriff of Wilkes; referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

By Mr. Speed: Resolution instructing the Judiciary to report a bill to consolidate the debt of the State contracted prior to Jan. 1st, '68, and to issue new bonds therefor bearing 3 per cent interest, to run thirty years, payable in 1900. After some discussion, its further consideration was postponed until the second Monday in Dec.

The hour of 12 having arrived the Senate proceeded to execute the joint order, to wit: the election of a United States Senator.

Mr. Jones nominated Hon. Z. B. Vance. Mr. Moore nominated Hon. J. C. Abbott.

The Senate proceeded to ballot which resulted as follows, to wit:

Mr. Barnett voted for Hon. W. A. Graham.

Mr. Flythe voted for Gen. M. W. Ransom.

Mr. McCotter voted for Hon. E. G. Warren.

Mr. Smith voted for J. A. Gilmer, Jr.

CALENDAR.

Bill to abolish the office of State Printer came up on its second reading. [This bill proposes to raise a joint Committee, whose duty will be to give the printing to the lowest responsible bidder.]

Mr. Morehead offered a substitute for the bill, (which authorizes a select Committee to contract to have the printing done on reasonable terms.)

Mr. Graham said that he did not see the necessity or propriety of appointing another Committee, as there was already a joint standing Committee on that subject. He thought it was rather a reflection on that Committee, and moved to strike out select Committee in the substitute and insert the joint standing Committee on printing, which was agreed to.

Mr. Moore moved to amend the substitute by striking out the words "on reasonable terms" and insert "by the lowest responsible bidder." Mr. Moore urged the adoption of the amendment on the general cry of retrenchment and economy.

Mr. Olds followed in support of the amendment.

Mr. Smith said he hoped the amendment would not be adopted. He had had some little experience in the printing business himself and he was convinced that the pay for printers was very poor. He was in favor of the substitute in its original form and thought the Senate should pass it without hesitation. He was opposed to any such picayune action as putting the printing down to the lowest bidders. Men from all parts of the State would send in their bids, and the work would not be half done, besides he believed in that old adage "to the victors belong the spoils."The standard bearer of the Conservative party had worked faithfully and hard to secure the victory and his efforts were crowned with success and to him (if there was any thing to be given) it should belong.

Mr. Brogden, in a lengthy argument urged the adoption of the amendment and was strong for retrenchment.

Mr. Love said he was glad to see that the Senator from Wayne had become so fully alive to the interests of the people; so much in favor of retrenchment. The Senator, has climbed on his platform at last. He (Mr. Love) during the last session urged and voted for retrenchment on all occasions and especially in reference to printing. He recollected there was a proposition made by a certain establishment in this city to do the work at 62½ cts per 1000 ems which was adopted and the Senator from Wayne voted for the proposition. That night there was a caucus of Republicans and the next day in came a proposition from the Standard office to do the work at 75 cts per 1000 ems. On motion of Mr. Sweet, 62½ cts were stricken out and 75 cts was inserted, the Senator from Wayne voting to strike out and insert the 75 cts. He simply alluded to this matter to show the Senators consistency.

Mr. Robbins offered the following amendment to the original bill to come in after the words "lowest bidder," Provided, That the question of the responsibility of the bidder shall be within the discretion of the Committee, who shall also be required in making arrangements respecting the printing, to see that it be given to parties who will do it well and properly.

Mr. Worth said if he had the arrangement of the matter, he could fix the bill at once to suit his views. He would authorize the Committee to have the work done well on reasonable terms by an editor of some good Conservative paper who had worked for the interests of the Conservative party, and if he were a member of that Committee he would not listen for a moment to any proposition coming from the office which had done the printing for the last two years.

Messrs. Jones and Cowles spoke at length and with great force against the amendments, and urged, in a manly and eloquent manner, the adoption of the substitute in its original form. Mr. Cowles, during his remarks, said it had always been customary to give the printing to a paper which had supported the claims of the dominant party. He was for giving the printing to a Conservative editor, and he would vote for no resolution to give the printing to any other than a Conservative. He believed this proposition to give the printing to the lowest bidder was a cloak to make Milton S. Littlefield State Printer, who had stolen enough bonds to do the printing for nothing and of course could afford to under bid any honest man.

Messrs. Morehead and Merrimon concluded the debate in support of the substitute in its original form.

The main question was ordered.

Mr. Robbins' amendment to the original bill was adopted.

Mr. Moore's amendment to the substitute proposing to give the printing to the lowest responsible bidder was voted down.

YEAS.—Messrs. Beasley, Bellamy, Brogden, Barnett, Eppes, col., Flythe, Hawkins, Hyman, col., King, Love, McCotter, Olds, Price, col., Robbins, of Rowan, Robbins, of Davidson, and Whitesides—16.

Nays 29.

The substitute was adopted by the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Adams, Allen, Battle, Currie, Cowles, Cook, Dargan, Flemming, Graham, Jones, Latham, Linney, Love, McClammy, Murphy, Morehead, Mauney, Merrimon, Norment, Speed, Skinner, Smith and Worth.—23.

NAYS.—Messrs. Beasley, Bellamy, Brogden, Barnett, Eppes, (col.) Flythe, Gilmer, Hawkins, Hyman (col.) King, Lassiter, Ledbetter, Lehman, McCotter, Moore, Olds, Price (col.) Robbins of Rowan, Robbins of Davidson, Waddell and Whiteside.—20 and the bill passed its second reading.

Mr. Cowles moved to suspend the rules in order to put the bill on its third reading, which motion was lost.

On motion the Senate adjourned.

Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, took the floor and spoke in opposition to the passage of the bill.

On motion of Mr. Sparrow the bill was referred to the Committee on Counties and Townships.

Bill in favor of George Nix, of Yadkin, was taken up and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Bill concerning the city of Wilmington, was taken up and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Bill in relation to per diem was taken up and referred to the Committee on Salaries and Fees.

Bill to repeal the act "to secure the better protection of life and property" was taken up.

Mr. French moved to refer to Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

Mr. Strudwick said the provisions of the act proposed to be repealed were well known and the wrongs and outrages perpetrated upon our people under its operations, demanded a speedy repeal of this bill.

Mr. Justice favored the reference. He said that murders, which were of common occurence, and might increase if this law was hastily repealed.

Mr. Welch argued against any reference. He wished the infamous measure repealed at once. As far as a reference was concerned, the bill had already been referred to a Committee—the whole people of the State, from Cherokee to Currituck, and had been universally repudiated.

Messrs. McAfee and Houston advocated immediate action in the matter. That the presence of such an infamous law upon the statute books was a disgrace to the State and should not be tolerated for an instant longer. It was in every respect a deadly thrust at the liberties of the citizens of the State, &c.

Mabson, col., spoke in favor of the reference.

Mr. Strudwick said that the gentleman from Rutherford, (Mr. Justice,) was unfortunate in his allusion to murders, robberies, &c. He invited the gentleman's attention to the state of affairs which has existed and still exists in Robeson. The Governor has never used the least authority under this law to remedy the evils in that county.—He (the Governor) only used the powers, this bill is alleged to give him, on the eve of a popular election in certain portions of the State. It was used for purposes of intimidation in order to further party ends. The title of the bill made it farcial in the extreme. Unoffending citizens of Caswell and Alamance had been robbed, imprisoned and brutally treated under this bill "to secure the better protection of life and property," &c.

Here the Chair announced that the time to go into the election of a United States Senator had arrived and that nominations would be received.

Mr. Crawford nominated Hon. Z. B. Vance of Mecklenburg.

Mr. French nominated Jos. C. Abbott.

A vote was had which resulted as follows:

For Z. B. Vance.—Mr. Speaker, Messrs. Anderson, Armstrong, Ashe, Atwater, Atkinson, Broadfoot, Bryson, Clinard, Crawford, Currie, Dickey, Dunham, Furr, Gambrel, Gore, Gullick, Grayson, Gregory, Hampton, Henderson, Houston, Hill, Hinnant, Johnston, of Buncombe, Johns, Jones of Caldwell, Joyner of Pitt, Jordan, Kelley of Davie, Kelly of Moore, Kelsey, Kincade, Luckey, Martin, Maxwell, McAffee, McCauley, McNeill, Mills, Mitchell. Nicholson, Powell, Rankin, Reid, Regan, Robinson, Scott, Settle, Shull, Smith of Anson, Smith of Wayne, Sparrow, Stanford, Stewart, Strudwick, Tomlinson, Waring, Welch, Wilcox, Womack, Young of Yancey, and York.

For A. S. Merrimon.—Messrs. Brown and Duckworth.

For E. G. Warren.—Messrs. Carson and Marler.

For M. W. Ransom.—Messrs. Chamberlain, Gatling and Woodhouse.

For J. C. Abbott.—Messrs. Brooks, Bryant of Halifax, Bryan of Jones, Bunn, Cawthorn, Copeland, Dudley, Ellison, Faulkner, Fisher, Fletcher, French, Goodwin, Harris of Franklin, Hargrove, Hardy, Johnson of Edgecombe, Jones of Northampton, Justice, Lyon, Mabson, Morgan of Wake, Nisson, Page, Parrot, Phillips, Reavis, Robbins, Smith of Halifax, Tucker, White and Willis.

For A. H. Jones.—Mr. Collis.

For W. A. Moore.—Sykes.

For S. F. Phillips.—Mr. Morris.

The discussion on the bill repealing the act "To secure the better protection for life and property," was resumed.

Messrs. Justice and Tucker, col. argued in favor of the reference.

Messrs. McNeill, Johnston of Buncombe and Sparrow urged, in remarks of some length, the immediate repeal of this, as they characterized it, most obnoxious, wicked and oppressive law.

Morgan col. of Wake would deprecate the repeal of such a wholesome law.

Mr. White depicted the terror which secret organizations in Alamance County had spread in that County before the Governor sent his troops there. He knew that part of those troops were ruffians, and he had denounced the outrages committed by them on some citizens of that county, but he knew the Governor's intention was good in placing troops in the County; he (the Governor) did not desire to influence the election, but to secure peace and order.

He would vote for the repeal of the law, because there was now no necessity for it, and peace and contentment reigned in Alamance county.

Mr. Gregory next took the floor in opposition to the motion to refer. He wished to see the infamous law, under which wicked and infamous men perpetrated such outrages upon the liberties of our citizens, expunged from the statute books of the State.

Mr. G. spoke to some length, depicting the scenes of wrong and oppression that the gang of Tennessee bushwhackers, headed by the cut-throat Kirk, which this bill turned loose upon our people, had inaugurated, and in the name of his people demanded its instant and unequivocal repeal.

Mr. Strudwick called the previous question. The call being sustained, the motion to refer was rejected by the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Brooks, Bryant, of Halifax, Bryan, of Jones, Bunn, Buxton, Copeland, Darden, Dudley, Ellison, Faulkner, Fisher, Fletcher, French, Goodwin, Garrison, Hargrove, Hardy, Johnson, of Edgecombe, Jones, of Northampton, Justice, Lyon, Mabson, Morgan, of Wake, Nisson, Phillips, Page, Reavis, Robbins, Smith, of Halifax, Sykes, Tucker and Willis—32.

NAYS.—Messrs. Anderson, Armstrong, Ashe, Atwater, Atkinson, Broadfoot, Brown, Bryson, Carson, Chamberlain, Clinard, Collis, Crawford, Currie, Dickey, Duckworth, Dunham, Furr, Gambrel, Gatling, Gore, Gullick, Grayson, Gregory, Hampton, Harris, of Franklin, Henderson, Houston, Hill, Hinnant, Johnston, of Buncombe, Johns, Jones, of Caldwell, Joyner, of Johnston, Joyner, of Pitt, Jordan, Kelly, of Davie, Kelly, of Moore, Kelsey, Kincade, Lucas, Luckey, Martin, Marler, Maxwell, McAfee, McCauley, McNeill, Morris, Morgan, of Montgomery, Mills, Mitchell, Nicholson, Parrot, Powell, Rankin, Reid, Regan, Robinson, Scott, Settle, Shull, Smith, of Anson, Smith, of Wayne, Sparrow, Stanford, Stewart, Strudwick, Tomlinson, Waring, Welch, White, Wilcox, Womack, Woodhouse, Young, of Yancey and York—77.

The bill then passed its second reading by a vote of yeas 85, nays 25. The following voting in the negative:

Messrs. Bryant, of Halifax, Bunn, Copeland, Dudley, Ellison, Faulkner, Fisher, French, Garrison, Goodwin, Hargrove, Hardy, Johnson, of Edgecombe, Justice, Lyon, Mabson, Morgan, of Wake, Nisson, Page, Reavis, Robbins, Smith, of Halifax, Sykes, Tucker, Willis.

By Mr. Robinson a resolution in regard to the House Library; placed on Calender.

Adjourned.

NOTE.

During the ballot for United States Senator the following gentlemen thus explained their votes:

Mr. Tomlinson said he voted for Gov. Vance, not as the man of his choice or as the choice of his constituents, as he is banned by the fourteenth amendment, but because he is the choice of the Conservative party and the most acceptable nominee, both to himself and his constituents. He further said he used all his influence to secure for a nominee a man who is not banned.

Mr. Welch said that before casting his vote to day for United States Senator he desired to enter his solemn protest against the policy which has been adopted by the party of which he claimed to be an humble representative. He fully recognized the tremendous responsibility which rests upon them as an organization. To preserve harmony in that organization to which he was compelled to look for the preservation of American liberty, he had yielded to the behests of party, and suppressed his own convictions of right rather than create dissension and discord among those who may be conservitors of their country.

In this announcement of his views, he was actuated by no personal considerations, but solely by the anxious desire to promote the best interests of his people. Were Gov. Vance laboring under no political disabilities there was no North Carolinian who would sustain his claims with greater ardor than himself. He appreciated his services. He acknowledged his abilities and was filled with a profound admiration of his unswerving devotion to the welfare of the State.

But his soul has been filled with a higher ambition than the mere gratification of reflecting honor upon any son of the old North State, however magnificent his record or deserving his labors. He felt in his heart that the present action here is destined to contribute to the glorious restoration of that temple reared by our fathers, or to widen the chasm which threatens to engulph our liberties.

He had labored with all the ability he possessed to convince gentlemen of the impolicy of selecting any man to represent us in the Senate of the United States, who is banned by the 14th amendment. In this he had failed. He should do his duty to his party. His people would appreciate his efforts. Let the responsibility rest with those who have forced upon us this alternative.

This protest might entail upon him the odium of certain parties in the State who differed from him honestly upon this question, but the satisfaction which proceeds from the consciousness of a duty faithfully performed gave him the assurance that, at no distant day, when the passions and prejudices of the hour have subsided, his motives would be understood and duly appreciated.

He would vote for Gov. Vance.

Mr. Martin said in substance, that, while he thought the nomination of a banned man a movement of bad policy, yet as the party had seen fit to pursue a different course, he would vote for the nominee. His constituents expected him to support a man untramelled by political disabilities and he had done his best to further their views, but the party desired otherwise, and therefore, he would record his vote for Z. B. Vance.

For the Sentinel.

YANCYVILLE, N. C. Nov. 23, 1870.

HON. JOSIAH TURNER, JR.

My Dear Sir:—I write you because we have no representative in the Legislature, and I wish you to represent me in the matters of which I shall speak. I do so because your feelings are in full accord with the people of Caswell who have been outraged in a manner that shocks civilization.

I gave no certificate of election to any one of the parties voted for in the August election. No return of the election was made to me as the law directs. The Commissioners were in prison, I was in prison also. The commissioners refused to act, when Kirk appointed another set.

I have never recognized Kirks jurisdiction in this county much less his right to appoint County Commissioners. The returns were not according to law, they should have been made on the 6th of August and not on the 11th as they were. No people as you well know were even subjected to such humiliation and wrong. Kirk's prisoners will send you or Judge Merrimon a memorial to be placed in the hands of some member to present to the Legislature. If the men who so brutally wronged us are to go unimpeached and unpunished, our people will have cause to regret that they did not take vengeance and the law in their own hands. Your attention to this will oblige many friends and none more than your friend,

J. C. GRIFFITH.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1870.

Theo. N. Ramsay, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

The State Council, Friends of Temperance, will meet in this city to-night. The delegates will assemble at Temperance Hall at 7 o'clock, P. M.

Grand Temperance Rally.—There will be a grand rally of the Friends of Temperance at Metropolitan Hall, on Thursday night at 7 o'clock. Addresses will be delivered by several of the delegates in attendance on the State Council. Let every body turn out; admission free. The Raleigh Brass Band has been engaged for the occasion.

Dr. C. F. Deems.—We are requested to state that this popular divine will preach a sermon in the Baptist Church of this city, this (Wednesday) evening, at 7 o'clock, in behalf of the Young Men's Christian Association. At the close of the sermon a collection will be taken up in furtherance of the objects of the Association. We mention this latter fact that every one may go prepared to do something in so noble a cause.

Bishop Gibbons.—This distinguished Prelate of the Roman Catholic Church is expected to arrive in Raleigh to-day. He will preach and officiate at the 11 o'clock service in St. John's on Sunday next. The Right Rev. Bishop will be the guest of William Grimes, Esq., during his stay in our city.

Services at the Baptist Church.—Rev. Mr. Earle, who has been for some time expected to visit our city, will arrive this evening or to-morrow, and will commence a series of services at the Baptist Church, by preaching his first sermon to-morrow, (Thursday) afternoon at 3 o'clock. The services will, we learn, be protracted to some two or three weeks, by public preaching and other religious exercises three times a day. The object is to awaken a general interest on the subject of religion, hence it is to be hoped that every body will attend and earnestly second the effort.

Mr. Earle is represented as one of the most powerful pulpit orators of the day, missionary in his labors and resembling the great Christmas Evans in his success in accomplishing great good wherever he preaches.

Tableaux at Metropolitan Hall.—We are requested to give notice that the lady friends of the Colored Fire Company, No. 1, of this city, will give a series of entertaining and picturesque tableaux at Metropolitan Hall, on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week, for the benefit of the Company. A general invitation to every body is extended. Admission 50 cents for the floor, 25 cents for the gallery, children 15 cents. The firemen of the city will be charged only 25 cents.

Wyman has Arrived.—We met Wyman on the street yesterday. He has come on his annual round, to show his tricks and give away his presents, which he will do for four successive nights, beginning to night, at Tucker Hall. We learn from our exchanges that he has a new set of illusions and tricks. New or old, Wyman always draws well.

Fire.—There was an alarm of fire about 6 o'clock last evening, which proceeded from a wood tenement house, occupied by some colored people, near the old Spirit-of-the Age office in West ward, taking fire in the roof, near the chimney, but it was extinguished before any material damage was done. All the fire companies were prompt in repairing to the scene of danger, but happily their services were not required.

Lost.—Yesterday a check on the State National Bank, drawn in favor of S. A. Banks, or bearer, was lost somewhere between A. G. Lee & Co.'s and the State National Bank. The finder, by leaving it at A. G. Lee & Co.'s, will be liberally rewarded. Precautions have been taken to stop its payment.

"Spalding's Glue," useful in every house.

The Order of the Day.—A general order for Sozodont. In the teeth of all opposition it has become the supreme dentrifice of the age.

No impurity can infest the teeth cleaned daily with Sozodont. Quillay, the bark of the Chilian Soap Tree, an article which possesses cleansing properties superior to those of any other known substance, is one of the ingredients of this peerless compound. Sozodont is the only dentrifice in existence in which this salubrious botanical product is incorporated.

nov 25 eod1w.

Coughs and Colds are often Overlooked.—A continuance for any length of time causes irritation of the Lungs, or some chronic Throat Disease. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" are offered with the fullest confidence in their efficacy, giving almost invariably sure and immediate relief.

Owing to the good reputation and popularity of the Troches, many worthless and cheap imitations are offered, which are good for nothing. Be sure to obtain the true "Brown's Bronchial Troches." Sold everywhere.

nov. 25, eod1w.

Address R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo N. Y., and get a pamphlet on Catarrh free, or send sixty cents and get Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. $500 reward is offered by the proprietor for a case of Catarrh which he cannot cure. Sold by druggists.

NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD.

The value and importance of this road is made manifest by the interest it excites in Wall street and among the smaller Railroad Corporations. The President and Board of Directors once agreed to lease it to the Raleigh and Gaston Company for $240,000 per annum, but a Wall street broker outbid them. The Piedmont Road, forty miles long, proposes to lease the North Carolina Road, two hundred and twenty three miles long! Well may we exclaim, should such a proposition be consummated, "What a tail our cat's got!"

We fear that a forty mile cat with a two hundred and twenty mile tail, could not run well.

There will be all manner of means suggested to deprive the State of its property. Gov. Holden once favored the lease to the Raleigh and Gaston Company, but his opinions are not worth much on such subjects since his sale of the Swamp lands, the sale of the N. C. Railroad bonds and the location of the Deep River Penitentiary.

In the ruined condition of the fortunes of our people, produced by the war and reconstruction, every citizen is entitled to a homestead. Holden, Littlefield and company have ruined the State, robbed her of her public lands, of her stock in the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, of her money and her bonds, of her credit and her good name; in short of everything except the N. C. Railroad. Let the poor old decrepid mother of us all take a homestead in this railroad, and allow no man or set of men or corporation to sell or lease it. Either the sale or lease would put the people, whose money built the road, at the mercy of those who have nothing in common with them.

LETTER FROM THE SHERIFF OF CASWELL.

Sheriff Griffith of Caswell writes that he has given no certificate of election to the Caswell members. What is there that Holden and Kirk will not do? Who ever dreamed that Kirk would dare to appoint Commissioners to hold an election in Caswell or any other county! Sheriff Griffith is a true man; Judge Tourgee and Gen. Sicles' scholar put him to a severe test; they did not bend or break him. Then Kirk and Holden arrested him; they made as little out of him as did Tourgee and Sicles.

GRATITUDE TO A MULE.

Phillips rode a mule triumphantly and safely through his late campaign; out of gratitude to the race he voted for an ass for Senator.

Sam! Sam! What a shame! You should have voted for Dad or Jo. Even Billy Smith would not disgrace himself by blowing Abbott's horn. Now we remember Sam was indebted to Abbott and the carpet bag wing of the Republican party for his nomination of Attorney General. Jo voted aloud against Sam's nomination; Dad wanted the place for his son Lewis, therefore Sam could not vote for either Dad or Jo.

Not Satisfied.—We understand that "my son Joe" is highly disgruntled at the result of the Congressional election on Saturday, and says that he will contest the election, and further, that Col. Rogers shall never, never, no never have his disabilities removed. Now, in the first place, we don't believe that "my son Joe" will be allowed to run the next Congress. In the second place, there is some difference at least between Joseph and Col. Rogers in regard to disabilities, favorable to the latter: Congress, even though radical, may remove Col. Rogers's disabilities, but Joe labors under disabilities of a two-fold kind—one the people refused, on Saturday, to remove, the other, nothing less than the Almighty can do anything for.

One of the Reasons.—We knew that strong and powerful influences were operating on our Western brethren, to produce such a political reaction as was manifest in the August elections. Looking over the Jefferson Times of the 24th November, we discovered one of the causes of this tremendous reaction, namely, forty tracts of land advertised to be sold for taxes in Jefferson county, alone, all of them about homestead size, the result of Radical administration.

House Burned.—We understand that a cabin inhabited by an old colored man and woman, in East Ward, was burned yesterday afternoon, together with all its contents. The house was a very poor one and the furniture scanty, yet it was their all.—The burning is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

To Life Insurance Agents.—One of the soundest and best established Life Companies, in this country, with a good list of policies in force in this State desire a man of high character to act as Gen'l Agent. He will be required to travel most of the time, must be a good solicitor and fond of the work. The position offers good pay and prospects of permanent employment.

A National Medicine.

One can hardly pick up a newspaper or turn a street corner now-a-days that he does not find, staring him in the face, the announcement that Prof. So-and-so has just discovered a medicine which is a panacea for all the ills that flesh is, or may be heir to. These "wonderful" discoveries usually have an existence of a few months, then disappear from public notice. The reason of their sudden extinguisment is apparent. They were humbugs. At the outset all medical preparations have an equal chance for success, as all are equally unknown; but the chaff is soon winnowed from the grain by the practical test which an unprejudiced public applies to all things. There are but few preparations which have withstood the impartial judgment of the people for any length of time. One of the few which we have now in mind, and which has been a long time familiar to nearly every household in the land, is the celebrated Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Their almost universal sale and use, and their emphatic endorsement from all portions of the country, compel the admission that they must be a specific for the ailments for which they are recommended. Letters before us attest their efficacy in diseases of the throat, bowels and liver. In that truly terrible complaint, dyspepsia, where these Bitters are manufactured, their sale for home use is immense. This fact alone speaks volumes in their favor.—Extracts from the Muscatine Courier (Iowa,) Feb. 7, 1867.

The Sultan is reported dissatisfied with the hesitancy of his allies against Russia.

A dangerous conspiracy against King William has been discovered. No details.

The Royal Headquarters have been moved from Versailles to Meux. The siege guns used at Thionville are going to Montmedy. The German successes around Amiens have been confirmed by dispatches from King William, who however, gives no particulars.

The feeling at Versailles is that England makes too much of small matters, and that a war on the Eastern question is impossible.

A detachment of 8,000 Prussians are reported at Chateau Regnaults, 28 kilometres from Tours. The German right still occupies Montarges, threatening the French in the forest of Cercottes.

Frederick Charles' army has been strongly reinforced. The Prussian movements indicates their object to be to turn Vendome and to advance on Tours.

Berlin, Nov, 29.—The King telegraphs the Queen from Versailles on the 28th, that Manteufel with a portion of the first army corps defeated the French on Monday, a few miles south of Amiens. The French loss was a thousand killed and wounded and 700 prisoners. The Prussian loss was comparatively unimportant.—The Duke of Mecklenburg is near Lemans where Keratry has 20,000 men.

Tuesday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, Nov. 29.—No copies of the President's message will be given to the Press in advance.

FOREIGN.

London, Nov. 29.—Private French advices say that a great conflict between the opposing forces to the number of 300,000 men is likely to occur immediately in the Southern Department.

The Prussians are within twelve miles of the French Provisional Government.

Trochu denies the truth of the statement that he intends to banish 10,000 Parisians.

It is officially stated in the Telegraph, that Russia has decided to withdraw her demands and submit it to a Conference.

London, Nov. 29, 3 P. M.—The following dispatch has just been received here from Everux, the Capital of the Department of Eure, dated yesterday: 'The Prussians now occupy this town and are in the valley of Eure in great force. This evening they were driven toward the village of Villars by the Guarde Mobile, who retreated in turn when reinforcements came up for the enemy. Seventy thousand Prussians now occupy Amiens. There was some sharp fighting yesterday in the front of the army of the Loire, all along the line of country between Pithivier and Montarges. Particulars are wanting, but it is said that the French were generally successful, having captured many prisoners and one cannon.

Berlin, Nov. 29.—Austria congratulates Prussia upon German unity.

NEW YORK.

(World's special from Tours.)

New York, Nov. 29.—It is expected that decisive battles near Orleans will not yet occur.—The numerous skirmishes are all favorable to the French. The Prussian losses in these engagements are heavy, including nine cannon.—The Duke of Mecklenburg failed in the attempt to occupy Le Mans, which was covered by fifty thousand French, composed of Tierck's and Keratry's troops.

The main body of D'Aurrelles' army still occupy their entrenched position.

The Germans attempted to encircle him

BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF NEW YORK.

Cash Assets over $1,500,000,

ISSUES ALL FORMS OF NON-FORFEITABLE WHOLE LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES on the Mutual Cash Plan, declaring Dividens annually after the first annual premium paid. Assetts exclusively Cash with no portion of its reserve fund in premium notes, consequently its "reserve" is stronger than that of any Company doing business in this State. No "Definite surrender values guaranteed" as an inducement to new business, but reference is made to the average amount, paid on each surrendered policy as shown by New York Insurance Reports, 1869 in proportion of having paid larger surrender values, than has been given under a misnamed "Definite Cash Surrender Value." Death losses have not occurred, out of several hundred policy-holders in this State, which fact must establish the better ability of the Company, to pay larger dividends than Companies having an excessive mortality, the result of a selection of bad risks. "Fictitious Dividends are not declared, but Dividends are given from the actual surplus, in accordance with the Company's Charter. The attention of the public is invited to the following comparison of cost, demonstrating the advantages over ordinary insurances, of the

TONTINE DIVIDEND PLAN:

Ordinary Life Policy Tontine Dividend Plan. Age 38, amount $10,000. 10 years in force. Annual Premium $291 50.	Ordinary Life Policy Mutual plan Cash Co. The Equitable

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES

120 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

BURROUGHS & SPRINGS,
GENERAL AGENTS,

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its cash assets are upwards of $13,000,000.00 and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of promissory notes as in many Companies.
3. Its cash income per annum is over $4,500,000.00 and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes-of-hand of policy-holders, as the case in many companies.
5. It has paid to widows and orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4 000,000.
6. Such payments are made in cash, and not partly in cancelled notes, as is the case in many companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a policy for premium notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in al Note Companies.
8. The sum of $3,500,000, and upwards, in cash divided among policy-holders, (this included the dividend for the present year), as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available as cas in payment of premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start and not postponed until after the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made more progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the world.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected and its dealings so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other company in the world.
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year ending "December, 1, 1869, was $51,031,141.00.
18. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any other company, showing that capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, and not by the mode adopted by many companies, which is grossly unjust to a large proportion of the policy-holders.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with safety to the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business as is the case with many new companies.
21. It is the favorite company in the United States, as is shown by its new business for last year, being nearly $13,000 000 greater than any other company.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important SAFEGUARD. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.
